BASE BALL. The return game of base ball between the Parochial Clubs, Nos. 1 and 2, came off yesterday afternoon at the foot of Broad street. At the termination of the game the score stood 10 to 15 in favor of No. 2.

NEW STEAMER.—The new steamer of the Stonewall Fire Engine Company arrived from New York yesterday morning, on the steamship Charleston. It was carried to the carriage repository of Chief Engineer Nathans. In a day or two it will be formally turned over to the company.

PERSONAL .- Mr. J. C. Derby, formerly a wellknown publisher in New York, and now an enterprising resident of Aiken, has undertaken the agency of the splendid new American Encyclopædia of the Appletons in this section, and arrived in the city yesterday, with a view of making this great work better known to our citizens. His headquarters in Charleston are at Walker, Evans & Cogswell's. ANOTHER Speech.-Governor Scott spoke a speech in Columbia on Thursday night. The Guardian says: "In point of grammar, logic and manner-not to mention matter-we have but rarely heard a poorer speech, and venture to say that there are not ten colored members of the present Legislature who cannot deliver a more creditable one. Well may his Excellency look to Winchester rifles to sos ain him."

CATHOLIC MISSIONS .- The New York Freeman's Journal says that Father Garesche, the eloquent and devoted Jesuit missionary passed through this city last week on his way to Boston, to give a mission, and adds: "After that he goes directly to Charleston, S. C., to give a long series of missions; or, rather, to preach, exhort, and do the work of an apostle, among the people of South Carolina, and, afterwards, other Southern States."

A SAVINGS BANK .- The South Carolina Loan and Trust Company have, since their organization, formed a separate branch known as the Savings Bank, in which deposits of one dollar and upwards could be received, and all deposits bear an interest of six per cent. per annum, computed quarterly and passed to the credit of all depositors. The directors of the board, whose name are published in the notice, is a sufficient guarantee of the strength of the bank.

HABEAS CORPUS .- Some time ago, a colored man named Harris Makepeace was arrested upon the charge of larceny and lodged in the Charles ton County jail, subject to the order of the Darlington Court. Day before yesterday he sued out a writ of habeas corpus, and Magistrates Whiting and Dingle, before whom the writ was returnable, decided to discharge him from custedy, on the ground that there were no affidavits against him, and that since his imprisonment there had been a session of the Darlington Court, and no requisition had been made for him.

HIGH WATERS .- We take the following paragraph from the Camden Journal:

graph from the Camden Journal:

The heavy rains of Saturday caused a considerable rige in the river, and on Monday much of the land on its banks overflowed, greatly damaging those who had their lands prepared for the crop-Much of that work will be to do over again, which will retard planting operations. To many the injury will be serious, the work being backward on account of the past unfavorable seasons. We understand that the overflow of the Lynches Creeks have done considerable damage on those two streams. The water had commenced to recede, but the rains of yesterday afternoon and last night will doubtless cause it to rise again, and as it is still raining, the probability is that we shall have as, high a freshet as has visited us for several years.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL-CLOSING EXERCISES. PRESENTATION .- Yesterday quite a large number of persons assembled in the Normal School building, to hear the examination of the advanced

After the examinations, which showed great proficiency on the part of the scholars, the gradnating class, composed of the following named young ladies, received their diplomas, presented by Hon. C. Miss Alice Anderson, Miss Estell Pointell, and Miss Emma Gibbes received premiums; Miss Annie Duff, and Miss M. Wall received honorable mention, and Miss Georgie Gready and Miss Maggie Kievers were distinguished for good conduct, attention to studies and proficiency.

At the close of the exercises, Mr. E. Montague Grimko, in behalf the graduating class, presented Miss Rolley, the teacher, with a silver knife and fork. Rev. C. C. Pinckney received the gift for Miss Kelley, making a few appropriate remarks.

UNITED STATES COURT-HON. GEORGE S. BIJYAN, JUDGE, PRESIDING .- The following business was disposed of in the District and Admiralty Courts yesterday:

District Court .- Ex parte A. H. Ford. Petition for leave to pay fees out of funds in hand, was granted.

Ex parte C. D. Glöver. Application for rule on purchasers. It was ordered that the purchasers of notes and personal property show cause why the sales should not be set aside, and the matter referred to Registrar Carpenter.

GENERAL LEE IN AUGUSTA.—The reception rooms of the Planters' Hotel were thronged on Thursday morning with visitors eager to grasp the hand of their old chief. A large number of colored persons called to pay their respects and were well received. In the afternoon, carriages were furnished by the city authorities to afford the distinguished guest and his travelling friends an opportunity to observe the various points of interest in the city and suburbs. In the leading photon, as it passed, were General Lee and Miss Annie Russell with Mayor Allen and Alderman Stevall. Following was a second phæton, in which were onel Crawley, of the British army, General Claws, Colonel Rains and Major T. P. Branch s the carriages were driven through the city, all eyes were eager to catch a view of the features of the noble patriot and Christian gentleman interest. In addition to an exhibition of the beauties of the city, the delightful village of Summerville was also visited, the party returning to the hotel at a late hour in the afternoon. General Lee expresses himself delighted with his observations.

At 10 o'clock, the members of the Quartette and Amateur Clubs discoursed several pieces of appropriate vocal and instrumental music in front of the hotel, but in deference to his special request, General Lee was not called out. General Lee and his travelling companions left Augusta for Savannah on the 8:45 train yesterday morning, in which city they propose to spend several days and go thence to Florida, one of the objects of Ganeral Lee being to visit the grave of his father, on Cumberland Island.

AMUSEMENTS.

She Stoops to Conquer The fine old English comedies, in the hands of competent players, are always sure to draw a good house in Charleston; and even had a less attractive bill than Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer" been announced, the hearty good will and admiration which Miss Laura Keene has already won in our community would have sufficed to make her benefit last night what it was-a marked success.

The opening comedictta, "Two Can Play at That Game," was a charming piece, admirably presented by Miss Keene, Mr. Mordaunt and Mr.

But in "She Stoops to Conquer," the dramatic piece-de-resistance of the evening, Miss Keene achieved her most complete triumph, thus far, since she first appeared on the Academy boards. Certainly never has the character of the arch, fun-loving Kate Hardcastle been so admirably personated in Charleston. The rest of the cast was most judiciously made up; and no one who witnessed the performance will for a moment doubt the capacity of this excellent company to present, in worthy style, any of the favorite and standard plays which like "The School for Scandal," require a powerful dramatic combination. Mr. Hawk as the rollicking, mischlevous, goodnatured Tony Lumpkin, was exceptionably good, in his acting as well as make up; and Mr. Mordaunt was a capital Young Marlow. The perfect naturalness which always distinguishes this gentoo highly praised.

"Our American Cousin" will be produced for the last time at the matinee to-day, the hour of 12 o'clock noon. Of course, the ladies and children will turn out en-masse to see this celebrated play at the cheap rates of admission.

For to-night we are promised a great bill, embracing two most amusing comedies, besides the ever-popular Toodles.

MEETING OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A meeting of this body was held at 12 M. yesterday, in the hall over the office of C. T. Lowndes, on Broad street, Robert Mure, Esq., presiding.

Mr. Samuel Y. Tupper called the attention o the chamber to the inconvenience and unfitne of the present postoffice, and stated that he had conferred with the postmaster, who was of the opinion that if the two commercial organizations of the city would properly present the condition of the postoffice to Congress an appropriation might be secured to have the office changed to a more eligible site, where the administration of its affairs could be done with greater advantage to both the government and the citizens of Charleston. In concluding his remarks, Mr. Tupper pre sented the following

PETITION. and moved that it be adopted, copies of it printed, signed by the president and secretary of the Chamber, and the citizens generally, and for warded to Congress:

warded to Congress:

This memorial of the Chamber of Commerce and the citizens of Charleston respectfully represent that the building in which the city postorice is now located has, by reason of the resumption and increase of business within its delivery, become insufficient for the reasonable convenience of the public, as well as for the necessities in administration of its duties; and they deem it next. of the public, as well as for the necessities in administration of its duties; and they deem it pertinent and proper to set forth to your honorable body that the building owned by the United States, and formerly occupied jointly as a custom-house and a postomice, situated on Broad and East Bay streets, in Charleston, was, by the bombardment of the city during the war, so nearly demolished as to be utterly untenable, so that upon the re-establishment of the postomice in 1865, it became necessary to appropriate, by leasing temporarily, such a building as might be best adapted to the immediate necessities alke of the Postomice Department and the population. Under these circumstances the lecture room of the Central Prestyterian Church was repaired and leased these circumstances the lecture room of the Central Presbyterian Church was repaired and leased for the term of three years, from October, 1866, with a further privilege of an extension of ten years, at the monthly rental of $158.

In the meantime the building has been made to subserve, inconveniently, the requirements of the service, but it is inadequate not only to an increasing business, but to the present need. The entire office room, including lobby, is embraced in the dimension of sixty-two feet in length and thirty-two feet in width, with an additional room eight feet by twelve feet, and with the best practicable arrangements of tables, cases, desks, eight feet by twelve feet, and with the best practicable arrangements of tables, cases, desks, books, delivery windows and indispensable furniture. The oilice cannot be properly accommodated, and its several departments of separating, mailing, box and general delivery, route agenta, mail messengers and carriers, register letters and money order business, cannot be conducted with such caution and order as the public has a right to enjoy, and as the postmaster and assistants might hope to achieve.

right to enjoy, and as the postmaster and assistants might hope to achieve.

There are within the central and business portions of the city eligible sites for a postoffice, which can be purchased advantageously; and it is the prayer of the petitioners that your honorable body will take such action as will secure to the government, as well as to the people of Charleston, a respectable and convenient post-

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The motion of Mr. Tupper was adopted, and on motion of Mr. Henry Gourdin, the president was requested to communicate the action of the chamber to the Board of Trade, and request its co-operation.

Mr, Tupper said that as there were numerous inquires regarding the action of the committee appointed to petition Congress relative to turning over to the chamber the old customhouse build ing, he would state that the committee had drawn up a petition and forwarded it to Congress, where it had been read and referred to the Committee on Commerce, which had not yet reported.

On motion of Mr. L. D. DeSaussure, the president was requested to confer with the postmaster, and ascertain if there could not be effected some arrangement by which the Postoffice box at Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell could be kept open a little later at night, as it was now closed too early for the business men, who were compelled to walk up to the Postoffice late at night if they desired to get their letters off by the morning mails.

The chamber then adjourned.

The Cuban Fair in Key West.

The Cuban residents at Key West have had a fair for the purpose of raising funds to aid the cause of their compatriots, who are spilling their blood for the independence of their country. The Cubans residing in Charleston ought to follow them. The Key West Cuban Fair has been very successful. We, their companions in this city, thank them for the indefatigable effort they make for our country and for the happy results obtained, which should encourage them never to desist from their noble and patriotic endeavor.

THE CUBANS RESIDING IN CHARLESTON.

VERDICT .- The jury empanelled to hold an inquest upon the body of Peter Heywood, who fall off a trestle of the Savannah and Charleston Railroad, have returned as a verdict that his death was caused by accident.

FRESHET.-One of the highest freshets known for several years past has occurred on the Wateree. The river is so high that the planting will be retarded, and the ploughing will have to be done over. The low grounds in the neighbor hood of the river have been flooded, and consider able damage to the planting interest is feared.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. The greatness of a country is best shown in its permanent institutions. They at once give solidity and perpetuity to its character and standing with other nations. That America is now in the ascendant, is proved by the superiority of her inrecognized, even in Europe, that her life corporations are the safest and best in the world. It is this growing sentiment in our favor which has induced the New York Life Insurance Company of this city to establish an agency in London where its excellence is already appreciated, and where there are many thousands who will be easily persuaded to insure their lives in a com pany which offers better security than can any life association in England, where there is no tleman's manner and tone on the stage cannot be government supervision, and little or no publicity given to the actual condition of such corporations. Insurers in England will find the New York Life a company they can implicitly trust with which has been changed, it will be noticed, to their savings, economically and skilfully conduct ed, prompt and certain in their payments, and liberal and just in all its dealings. It has select ed a gentleman to represent it in this new field for American enterprise, who has already demonstrated his remarkable efficiency in a similar undertaking on the Pacific Coast, where, in the space of a few years, he built up a life business from a small beginning of some forty thousand dollars a year to an annual income of one million and a half. He is not only a manager of superior skill and energy, but of unimpeachable worth and integrity. A better mau could not have been selected, nor one more certain to do credit to the New York Life, and indeed to the entire insurance f. ternity of this country. He has our best wishes for his prosperity in the old world .- Insur-
